86th Annual
NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF BANKRUPTCY JUDGES

SAN DIEGO
OCTOBER 24 - 27
2012

President's Welcome

The 86th annual National Conference of Bankruptcy Judges returns to the sensational City of San Diego from October 24 through 27, 2012. San Diego has hosted two of our most memorable and successful conferences-1996 and 2003- and this year's conference promises to add to our prior, wonderful experiences. You can expect a spectacular setting, the finest educational programs, optimal networking, and exciting social and cultural events. To commemorate our third conference in San Diego and in gratitude for the contributions of military families in the San Diego area, the NCBJ intends to make a contribution to one or more local charities which grant college scholarships and provide aid to dependents of military personnel. Your attendance at this year's NCBJ will assist us in making a substantial contribution to this worthy cause. San Diego is one of the nation's premier destinations, an unparalleled city with great weather, a rich patriotic, cultural, and maritime history, and many attractions for the entire family. This year we are returning to the recently renovated Marriott Marquis Hotel and Marina located on San Diego Bay. In addition to its sweeping harbor views, the hotel is close to the vibrant Gaslamp Quarter (great food and shopping), the famous San Diego Zoo (great for a family outing), Balboa Park (flowers, architecture, museums and history), and miles of sensational waterfront and sandy beaches (healthy fun)!

Once again we expect to exceed prior attendance records and welcome a great percentage of the bankruptcy judges from around the country, as well as over 1,500 insolvency professionals who have made the NCBJ the premier insolvency conference in the nation. Come see why the NCBJ has a deserved reputation as the place to learn and meet in this ever changing insolvency world. We will be employing the latest in meeting technology to deliver your materials via the internet, as well as telling you to keep your smart phones turned on (though silenced) so you can actively participate in various panels. If you are a young lawyer, we encourage you to apply for the Next Gen Program, described on our website. In furtherance of our diversity initiative, the Honorable Cornelius Blackshear Fellowship will offer full scholarships to five young minority lawyers. If you are a decision maker in your firm, we encourage you to bring young professionals to the NCBJ as they are your future as well as ours. This year's educational program promises to offer substance and sparkle. Program Chair Judge Marilyn Shea-Stonum and the Education Committee members whose names are listed on the last page of this brochure have organized seventeen leading edge panels on diverse business and consumer issues of the moment including Stern v. Marshall, sports bankruptcy, evidence, negotiation, appeals, group insolvency, chapter 13, chapter 15, the first year of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, and macro-economic issues. You will not want to miss Thursday's program featuring New York Times columnist Gretchen Morgenson and Saturday morning's session-A Conversation with Justice Stevens-who since his retirement from the Supreme Court has published "The Five Chiefs: A Supreme Court Memoir" which captures the inner workings of the Supreme Court. Expect excellent breakout programs with other organizations including the ABI, which will offer its popular roundtable discussions, ABA, ABI, ACB, AIRA, CLLA and IWIRC. These programs give attendees the opportunity to participate in programs and events in smaller settings and will enrich your educational and networking experience at the NCBJ.

There will also be plenty of time to socialize and enjoy the many opportunities for culture and recreation in San Diego. The social and cultural highlight of the conference undoubtedly will be Thursday evening's event aboard the USS Midway Aircraft Carrier organized by a group of local attorneys and judges and open to all conference attendees. The Midway promises to be an unforgettable evening of exciting activities and festivities. Service members will provide tours of the ship's three decks, 60 exhibits, 27 aircraft, and flight simulators. They will bring the ship's fascinating history from World War II to the end of the twentieth century to life, while guests enjoy refreshments, entertainment, and the 360 degree panoramic view of San Diego. A forewarning: wear sneakers to this event! Other excursions include tours of Coronado, San Diego Harbor, La Jolla, and a cooking class and wine pairing at the Wine and Culinary Center of San Diego. Golfers will not want to miss the tournament at the world-renowned Torrey Pines, situated on cliffs bordering the Pacific Ocean. Our Final Night Dinner entertainment on Friday night will be Creedence Clearwater Revisited who will perform many of rock's classic and timeless hits during their tremendous show.

Because we anticipate registrations for San Diego to sell out, please register as early as possible. We look forward to seeing you in sunny San Diego October 24th to 27th for another outstanding NCBJ.

Joan N. Feeney
President, NCBJ

Apollo Robbins, Gentleman Thief

Apollo Robbins is a sleight-of-hand artist, security consultant and self-described gentleman thief.

Robbins gained notoriety after pick-pocketing Secret Service agents accompanying former president Jimmy Carter. The publicity led to several academic speaking engagements for the science community, law enforcement, and government agencies on human behavior. As a lifelong student of social experimentation, Robbins was raised on misdirection, groomed for visual deception and a prodigy of human behavior studies. By combining the worlds of science and illusion, he paves an intellectual approach to bending reality.

Please join us for a leisurely walk through quaint Coronado, once the playground of presidents and princesses. The tour begins with an overview of the island's history - 460 years of it to be exact. Beginning in 1542 when Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo, a Spanish explorer first arrived in San Diego, all the way up until the finishing touches were put on the Hotel Del Coronado.

The Hotel Del holds the most stories, having been the filming site for the legendary film "Some Like It Hot" with Marilyn Monroe. Movie stars weren't the only residents of the hotel. British royalty also called it home. The Duke and Duchess of Windsor were guests, and the Duchess even has a building on the hotel grounds named after her - the Duchess of Windsor Cottage. Before She was the Duchess of Windsor, She and King George VI were at the same dinner party. It was there that she saw the king and realized she wanted to one day be a Duchess. King George VI is the man that the movie "King's Speech" was based on, which recently won Best Picture at the Academy Awards. Further along the guide will point out the house where Frank L. Baum - author of the Wizard of Oz books spent winters. He wrote many of the books right here in Coronado!

Advisory: Wear comfortable walking shoes.

TORREY PINES GOLF TOURNAMENT

THURSDAY: OCTOBER 25, 2012

Price: $285.00
Maximum: 144 people
Includes: 18 holes of golf, cart and transportation to and From the Marriott Hotel

It is named after the Torrey Pine, a rare tree that grows in the wild only along this local stretch of the coastline in San Diego County and on Santa Rosa Island.

Torrey Pines was where one of the most memorable modern day U.S. Open Championship, when in 2008, under the typically brutal conditions of this major tournament, injured and hobbling Tiger Woods defeated Rocco Mediate during their sudden death playoff after 90 grueling holes of exciting golf!

So bring your A game and play a possibly once in a lifetime round of golf, surrounded by incredible view of the Pacific Ocean. Please note that you must provide your own lunch. You can buy a sandwich from the Marriott, or purchase lunch at the golf course.

Advisory: Should you need to rent clubs, please call toll-free 1-800-985-4653. Suntan lotion and a camera.

Final Night Dinner

Partying with CCR!

Give CREEDENCE to what I say:

It'll become CLEAR (as) WATER.

San Diego is about to be REVISITED.

What a FORTUNATE SON!

No, I wasn't BORN ON THE BAYOU, but I was LOOKIN' OUT MY BACK DOOR

Wondering WHO'LL STOP THE RAIN, when I decided that it didn't matter

I'm not a PROUD MARY! No Sir!

And I'd beg DOOR TO DOOR or stand DOWN ON THE CORNER if I had to!

But, as luck would have it, there was no BAD MOON RISING and when I asked for the MIDNIGHT SPECIAL, well Man, I Got It!

Yes, that TRAVELIN' BAND, Creedence Clearwater Revisited is the entertainment for LODI, I mean San Diego!

Are you enticed to start TEARIN' UP THE COUNTRY to get your tickets to the Final Night Dinner? Well, HEY (order your tickets) TONIGHT! Otherwise, you'll have to answer "Yes!" when someone asks you, HAVE YOU EVER SEEN THE RAIN?

Because you'll be SO crying alone in your room while the rest of us are

PARTYING with CCR!
